Bharat gas connection kyc form

LPG has become a household name when it comes to cooking fuel. Its ease of use, relative safety compared to other fuel sources as well as its reduced impact on the environment make it an optimal cooking fuel. LPG connections are used difficult to obtain due to the lengthy process as well as the high cost of cylinders where gas is transported and stored. However, the government and gas companies have subsidised cylinder prices, making it affordable for the general public. Download Forms in English Version *Disclaimer When it comes to getting a gas connection for your home will have two options. The first is to approach one of the many agencies such as Hindustan Petroleum HP, Indane, Bharat Gas, etc. The second option is to go to a private distributor. The main advantage you will have with the first option is that the cost will be much cheaper because companies like this are well regulated and also the party to the government scheme to provide you with cooking gas at an affordable rate. They also bring the advantage of a well-formed network of services that allow you to transfer connections from one place to another anywhere locally, without too many headaches. But, before you proceed and start booking a gas cylinder through this provider, you need to complete a certain formality. One of these formalities is the details of KYC (Know Your Customers). Here's what you can expect from the KYC process. KYC Form for LPG Gas Form KYC for all gas connections remains the same as very little variation. The purpose of the form is to collect information about the customer to verify it and ensure that the individual is actually eligible to receive the services of the gas agency. For that reason, the form collects the following information: Personal details about you including your name, picture, age and close relative name. It also collects contact details such as your residential address, phone number, and email address. It will also collect information about the documents you submit to support the mentioned in the form. Fill out form KYC for LPG Connection There are certain things you need to keep in mind when filling out the KYC form. Here's how you go about it: Starting from above, be sure to provide a recent passport-sized picture for the form. You may be asked to sign a picture as soon as it is attached to the form. Do so by signing paper while letting your signature spill over the picture as well. In the first section, you will need to provide your own details such as your full name and your date of birth. You may also need to enter a Gas User Number if you have been allocated. The next section will collect the names of certain close relationships such as father, mother and spouse. The next section is where contact details in the form of addresses, phone numbers and email id, will be collected. If you submit a document to support your identity, you will need to fill in the details about the document in the next section. If you have a ration card, then you can mention those details also in the next section. Once all the details have been filled, go on them once to make sure that there are no mistakes in them. Once you're sure that there isn't, you can get the KYC form at the bottom. Once the form is submitted, the agency officer will sign the acknowledgment at the bottom of the form and submit it from the whole form for you to save. Documents Required for the Original Document of KYC GAS Form are expected to be produced for the purpose of verification of Proof of Address (POA) and Proof of Identity (POI). KYC Application Form for Pradhan Mantri Ujjwala Yojana while the KYC form is commonly used for the purpose of obtaining a new gas connection, there is also a KYC form required to participate in certain government schemes. One example is Pradhan Mantri Ujjwala Yojana. This is a scheme that aims to help households who are below the poverty line gaining access to clean cooking gas. The KYC form used for the scheme is slightly different even though it collects the same information about the applicant. In the case of this form, the form will ask for details of the family members, where it will consider a unit where members over the age of 18 live and use the same kitchen. This form will also collect the cylinder information the applicant wants and if they want the kitchen to go with the cylinder or not. Documents and procedures remain the same. Download the KYC PMUY Application form in both the English and Hindi versions below: Form KYC Gas FAQ: Where can I get the KYC form? You can get a KYC form either from a distributor for a particular gas company or from their website. Do I need to mention all the closest relatives requested? No, you can mention your father or spouse. You don't have to mention both. Can I get a gas connection without KYC? do not. Since KYC is mandatory, it is a formality that needs to be fulfilled to get a gas connection. Can I use the same KYC document for a new connection? do not. If you use the same document for a new connection while the old one is active, it is likely that the application will be rejected because one household cannot have more than one active connection. What happens if my KYC document does not match the information on the form? Although this may be a rare occurrence, it is best to ensure that the documents you submit bear the same name, photo and address as mentioned in the KYC form. If details don't match, the agency may not approve the application. Can I apply for KYC again if it fails again? Yes, you can apply for KYC again, provided you ensure that the correct details and supporting documents are submitted. If the form is the same, can I use the form from one company to apply for another company extension? No, this will not be encouraged. There may be possibilities where the KYC form, although similar, may bear a sign or serial number of the company issuing it. It is better to get a KYC form from the company you want to connect gas from. Is the gas user number mandatory? It is mandatory only for those who already have user numbers issued to them. If it is the first time you plan to connect then you do not need to quote it. *Disclaimer *Disclaimer *Disclaimer
